

Golfweek

Golfweek's Best 2023: Top 200 Modern Courses in the U.S.

By Jason Lusk

Want to play the great modern golf courses in the U.S.? From Hawaii to Boston, we have you covered. So welcome to the Golfweek's Best 2023 list of the Top 200 Modern Courses built in or after 1960 in the United States.

Each course is listed with its average rating next to the name, then the location, the year it opened and the designers. The list notes in parenthesis next to the name of each course where that course ranked in 2022.

After the designers are several designations that note what type of facility it is:

p: private

d: daily fee

r: resort course

t: tour course

u: university

m: municipal

re: real estate

c: casino

* Indicates new to or returning to this list.

T186. Keswick Hall and GC (Full Cry) (T179) 6.68

Keswick, Va.; 2014; Pete Dye; r, d