

THE GOLF WIRE

Covering the business of golf!

VIRGINIA'S KESWICK HALL: AN ELITE GOLF GROUP AND MEETINGS DESTINATION

Play, Gather, Regroup, Connect, Celebrate and Mingle at Premier U.S. Resort

(CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va.) – Keswick Hall – the acclaimed 600-acre luxury resort set in Virginia’s scenic Wine Country – with its celebrated Pete Dye-designed Full Cry course, world-class accommodations and splendid array of luxury amenities is one of the elite golf group, boutique corporate meetings and executive retreat destinations in the U.S.

Ideal for players of any and all abilities as well as a joyous locale to savor the area’s natural beauty, Full Cry is perfect for golf groups. The verdant layout is currently ranked No. 3 in Golfweek’s “Best You Can Play in Virginia” as well as sitting at No. 50 in Golfweek’s “Top 200 Resort Courses in the U.S.” Keswick Hall has also been honored with the prestigious Golf Digest Editors’ Choice Award for “Best Golf Resorts in the Americas” for seven consecutive years.

Keswick Hall now showcases the stunning results of its recent renovation. Highlights include an increase in the number of guest rooms from 48 to 80 as well as inspiring food and beverage outlets under the direction of acclaimed chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten who oversees the property’s culinary operations. The resort’s new, luxurious Keswick Hall Spa offers a selection of holistic spa experiences thoughtfully curated to support mental, physical and emotional well-being.

For epic conferences or intimate networking events, Keswick Hall offers an impressive setting for success. A well-appointed Boardroom features a custom-designed permanent conference table accommodating up to 20 attendees. The three sections of the Keswick Ballroom can be subdivided for general sessions and break-out space for up to 200 participants.

Meeting details and planning are attended to by Keswick Hall's dedicated team and offer pre-function space ideal for coffee breakouts and cocktail hours; an expansive outdoor amphitheater; private dining options; multiple meeting rooms; state-of-the-art audio / visual set-ups for flawless presentations; and the latest technology enabling additional participants to join in via tele-conference capabilities.

The property additionally provides a range of event spaces both indoor and out, complemented by luxurious signature suites. For smaller gatherings, guests can enjoy cocktails in the stately Library located in Crawford's Bar, a sunset toast at the Horizon Pool overlooking the golf course, or wine tasting on the Great Lawn set against the backdrop of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

"One of the great assets of Keswick Hall is that our meeting and group guests can mix business with pleasure by continuing to network and bond over a round of exceptional golf on Full Cry, an energetic tennis match on our fantastic courts, or simply savoring a culinary experience to long remember," says Robert Hardie, owner of Keswick Hall alongside his wife Molly. "We offer everything needed for our guest events to be a smashing success and we await your group's visit with open arms."

For more information on Keswick Hall visit www.keswick.com or call 434.979.3440.

About Keswick Hall

Set in the historic Wine Country of central Virginia, Keswick Hall is a 600-acre luxury resort. The resort's Pete Dye-designed course, Full Cry at Keswick Club, is currently ranked No. 50 in Golfweek's prestigious "Best Resort Courses" list for 2022 after debuting on the coveted list in 2016. The layout is also ranked No. 3 in Golfweek's 2022 list of "Best Courses You Can Play" in Virginia and was named one of Golf Digest's "Best New Courses" in the U.S. shortly after opening in the fall of 2014.

Keswick Hall – centrally located — is an easy two-hour drive from the Washington D.C. metro area and just over three hours from Baltimore and 3.5 hours from Raleigh, N.C. Charlottesville Albemarle Airport (CHO) is 30 minutes away. Richmond International Airport (RIC) is an easy 60-minute drive.