Sip wine while tracing President Thomas Jefferson's footsteps through the Piedmont countryside.

Why now: Jefferson didn't just leave his mark on America's government, but also on the nation's appreciation of fine wine. Hit highlights of both Jefferson and 40 local vineyards on a driving tour.

Do: Visit Monticello, Jefferson's plantation, which offers an honest look at the complicated life of America's third president. Sample locally sourced food at Petit Pois, a charming French bistro downtown.

Stay: Boar's Head Resort is a favorite with sporty families thanks to its indoor tennis facility, widely regarded as one of the best on the East Coast. At Keswick, the high-glamour vibe is enhanced by the sleek bar at Marigold by Jean Georges, which features a notably deep Euro-centric list of wines by the glass.
