KESWICK GOLF CLUB PROFESSIONAL STAFF

Eric McGraw, PGA Head Golf Professional, was born and raised into a family of golf professionals in Abilene, Texas. He played his first golf tournament at age 10 and continued playing competitively in college at Western Texas College and University of Central Oklahoma. After earning a History degree from Hardin-Simmons University, Eric discovered his passion: to help golfers improve their game. A PGA Member since 1993, he has been Keswick's Head Golf Professional since 1999. Providing outstanding golf instruction still underscores his love for the sport. He and his wife Patti have four children.

Bubba Pulley, PGA 1st Assistant Golf Professional, hails from Warm Springs, Georgia, where he learned to love many sports. Bubba attended Concord University (West Virginia) on a baseball scholarship, earned a Business Management degree and to this day has the most wins as a pitcher in the university's history. His career as a golf pro began at Wintergreen resort in 2006, and he has been at Keswick since 2008. Bubba was elected to the PGA of America in June of 2014, and holds the course record for the old Keswick Course from the tournament (Black) tees with a 66 (which now can never be broken, he is happy to note). He is the father of two boys, Bryce and Blake.

Joe Azurin, PGA Associate Golf Professional, a Virginia native, Joe started playing golf at age 13 after being inspired by the winning performance of Tiger Woods at the 2008 US Open. Passionate about the sport, Joe became a PGA Associate in August of 2018 and is currently pursuing his Class A PGA membership. Joe's enjoyment of the golf industry is evident by his enthusiastic interaction with others, consistent study of the game, plus a strong and genuine desire to help golfers achieve their playing goals.

Peter McDonough, Golf Course Superintendent, has been at Keswick for 26 years. Prior to Keswick, Peter worked for Arnold Palmer's management company and also was part of the TPC at Las Colinas golf course construction. From Massachusetts, Peter graduated from the Stockbridge School of Agriculture. Peter is a Past President of the Virginia Golf Course Superintendent's Association and member of the Golf Course Superintendent Association of America for the past 26 years. Peter has been highly involved with several organizations over the years as the Government Relations representative for the Virginia Golf Council. Peter and his wife Debra enjoy living in the Keswick area.
